A bequest could be the most important gift you ever make

Change our World, Educate a Girl

nurturingmindsinafrica.org

Here are a few good reasons why

You are investing in the future

Ensuring that bright, motivated, vulnerable Tanzanian girls will become Africa's educated leaders of tomorrow, perpetuating the important work you have invested in for years.

You can give to your heirs and still give to charity

There are clear tax advantages to naming Nurturing Minds as a beneficiary of retirement plan assets. While retirement plans are a great way to accumulate assets for your use during retirement, they can be a costly way to pass assets to your loved ones because the taxes imposed diminish the value of these assets. By naming Nurturing Minds as the beneficiary of retirement plan assets, you can ensure that 100% of the value of the assets is put to use educating girls in Tanzania.

A permanently endowed fund is forever

By helping to seed our endowment fund you will ensure the long-term financial sustainability of Nurturing Minds and the continued education of thousands of bright, motivated, poor girls who would otherwise be out of school.

Don't miss a chance at making a valuable difference. Include Nurturing Minds in your will today.

How to get started

Join the African Violet Circle today

African violets grow in the Uluguru Mountains surrounding the SEGA Girls School. By becoming a member of our circle you are planting the seed for the future beauty of Africa – for an educated girl is a beautiful thing indeed!

How to become a member

Designate a planned gift through one of our planned giving options:

- Include Nurturing Minds in your will or estate plan
One of the easiest ways to help involves simply naming Nurturing Minds as a beneficiary in your will or living trust.
- Make us the beneficiary of your retirement assets or insurance policy
By designating Nurturing Minds as a beneficiary of your IRA or life insurance policy, your heirs will not have to pay income tax on the assets, and your estate will not be subject to estate tax on their value. This means that Nurturing Minds gets 100% of your gift to use in its mission to educate at-risk girls.
- Make a life income gift
Charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities are two of the most popular life income gifts that allow you to leave a gift to Nurturing Minds while earning income for yourself during your lifetime.
- Help seed our endowment fund
100 years from now you can still be giving to Nurturing Minds. A gift to our endowment fund will help sustain SEGA indefinitely so vulnerable girls will always have a place to change their lives and thrive.
